

Average House. Above Average Response.

In a case study conducted in Providence, RI in 2020 a listing hub photographer worked with a listing agent to capture images of a property. After 2 days of presenting her property on Zillow; it received 3x the amount of views and saves then the average listing.

This listing went on to rank number #1 in popularity among 11 other similar listings in the market at the time. The official buyer visited during the first open house!

